

To whom it may concern:

I believe New Jersey's "DO Not Call" law is excellent and should not be undermined. A citizen should have the right to not be disturbed by telemarketers if that is their desire. The right to privacy should be upheld.

Thank you for your consideration.